MILLERSBURG ITEMS.

Mrs. Emma Long is visiting relatives at Georgetown.

Mr. F. F. Hurst attended the Grand Lodge of Maccabees at Mayville Friday and Saturday.

Messrs Aaron McConnell and M. P. Wells spent Sunday and Monday with relatives in Mt. Olivet.

Miss Virginia Hutchcraft, who has been in charge of kindergarten school in Georgia, will return Thursday.

Flowers—Carnations and roses. Place your commencement order early.

Rev. T. W. Watts attended the district conference of the Danville district which convened at Burgin last week.

Mr. J. P. Auxier is building a department store in Judyville and hopes to be able to occupy the building by July 1.

—Mr. D. V. Bradley, County Manager of the Bourbon Home Telephone Company, was here Thursday going over the route for the purpose of mapping out needed improvements along the line.

Miss Sarah Alcorn raffled a handsome shirtwaist Thursday which was won by No. 27, held by Mr. Thos. Thorne.

Mr. R. L. Brown, of Covington, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Hettie Brown and family Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Myra Ralls Booth, who has completed her course in piano at the M. F. C., gave her graduating recital Friday evening. She was assisted by Miss Lavina Reynolds, reader, and Miss Aldora Chambers, mezzo-soprano. A large and cultured audience greeted the young ladies. The program was classical and well rendered.

Mrs. Herndon, of Richmond, visited the M. M. I. a few days ago and will enter two sons next session. She is very much pleased with the institution and its surroundings, having heard a great deal of it and of Col. Best as a school man. There will be other boys from the same neighborhood. A number of boys in Bourbon county out of Millersburg will enter next year. Arrangements for them have been practically made. The outlook for the coming year has never been so promising this far in advance as it is now. Col. Best is receiving letters of inquiry almost daily and many seem to be anxious to close the contract for next year before the expiration of the present term. All are delighted at the outlook.

The six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Berry, who reside on the farm of Mrs. P. L. Dimmitt, died Saturday afternoon. The little fellow had been an invalid from birth and had never been out of bed a day in his life and was scarcely able to talk. Burial Sunday afternoon in Millersburg cemetery.

Aaron S. Watkins LL. D. of Ada, Ohio, a popular and well known orator, will deliver a lecture Wednesday evening at the Christian church on the subject of "Temperance." Mr. Watkins comes highly recommended and can be vouched for by President Fisher, of the M. F. C., who has heard him and he says he is interesting, entertaining and instructive. Such a man should be greeted with a large audience.

In a ball game Friday afternoon between M. M. I. and Carlisle on M. M. I. grounds the visitors were defeated by a score of 12 to 10. The game was exciting throughout. The stars for M. M. I. were Wigglesworth, who came in for a three bagger and a home run, and McClure, who made a high leap after a hot fly which resulted in a triple play. The score: M. M. I. 4 1 1 0 1 1 0 4 x—12 Carlisle 2 3 0 0 0 0 5 0 0—10 Batteries—M. M. I., McClure, Burris and Jacoby; Carlisle, Crowe, Talbott, and Bennett.

Col. and Mrs. C. M. Best of the M. M. I., entertained the faculty and student body of the M. F. C., Saturday evening from 7 till 9. It was a delightful occasion to see the two student bodies together and one that will long be remembered by both schools. The commencement season is practically on. The recital of Friday night and the reception of Col. and Mrs. Best helps to put our little town in holiday attire.

The commencement exercises of the M. F. C. will open Friday morning at 9:30 with field day exercises. On the same evening at eight o'clock the two literary societies will give a joint entertainment in which four essays will be read for a gold medal. Saturday morning at 10 class day exercises, Saturday evening at eight a play by the class of expression, Sunday morning at 10 45 baccalaureate sermon by Rev. Hamilton, of Bluefield, W. Va., at Methodist church, Sunday evening at eight annual missionary sermon to the Y. W. C. A., of the college by Rev.
